Brand Strategy | Brand Positioning | Consumer Insights
Bengaluru, Karnataka, India

Summary

"In the midst of chaos, there is also opportunity." - Sun Tzu

I love bringing brands to life through smart strategy, creative storytelling, and seamless execution. With experience in global communications, branding, and digital marketing, I've worked across markets to optimize workflows, manage high-impact results, and create content that truly connects.

Whether it's launching a new product, driving engagement through events, or refining a brand's positioning, I enjoy the challenge of turning ideas into results. I thrive in fast-paced environment, collaborating with cross-functional teams, and using data to fine-tune strategies for real impact.

Outside work, I collect experiences like some people collect stamps; currently on a mission to meditate daily, work out without excuses, and and find the perfect balance between eating healthy and giving in to my spice cravings.

Experience

Furlenco
Brand Strategy Manager
June 2025 - Present (1 year 5 months)

- Building the positioning and go-to-market strategy for Furlenco Kids, launching a new 8-SKU category across Furlenco's key markets.
- Conceptualised and led primary consumer research for Furlenco Kids, uncovering a previously unidentified barrier to rental around children's product damage and identifying higher rental propensity among second-time parents; translated findings into revised targeting, RTBs and communication strategy.

- Working on customer engagement and lifecycle marketing for Furlenco's Active Subscriber Base (ASB), across communication and retention initiatives.
- Creating new brand and customer experiences, including a surprise box for Furlenco Kids designed to build stronger emotional connection with parents.
- Leading Furlenco Kids' first offline brand activation, building new ways for parents and kids to discover and experience the category.
- Managing integrated brand campaigns across social, creators, paid media and partnerships.
